Lexington

A gift walk for the people you love.

01 The Artists' Attic

401 W Main St, suite 401

For the friend who notices every shade of blue, ask to see Susan Smith-Sargent's silk paintings. She steams the dyed silk for hours to set the color.

02 Lussi Brown Coffee Bar

114 Church St

For the friend you keep meaning to see, give a coffee card with a date penciled in. Two Lexington baristas dreamed up this place after their shifts.

03 193 SHOP at Institute 193

193 N Limestone

For your Sunday cook, pick up the Alfalfa cookbook, full of recipes and stories from the Lexington restaurant. Tuck in an invitation to dinner.

04 Friends Book Cellar

140 E Main St, Central Library, lower level

Find a used copy of a book you once read together. Tell them which scene stuck with you. The shop helps the Friends support Lexington's public library.

05 The Kentucky Theatre

214 E Main St

For the person who stays through the credits, give a gift card to this nonprofit cinema. Write "You pick the movie. I'm getting the popcorn."

Make an afternoon of it

Start at noon on Friday or Saturday. Check 193 SHOP's hours and cookbook stock ahead, and reach the Book Cellar before 4 p.m.

Scan or tap for the five-stop walking map

At Lussi Brown after noon? Indoor seating is 21+. Coffee is available to go.

Series inspired by Anna Rosales-Crone, SoIN Tourism.